

Iran's most equipped state-owned hospital to become operational by next year

Written by Mehr News Agency

Wednesday, 20 November 2019 12:06 -

He made the remarks on Wed. in an interview with IRNA and added, “with its 800 equipped and modern hospital beds, “Mehdi Clinic” Hospital will be the most equipped highly-specialized hospital that will be put into operation next year (to start March 21, 2020).

With its 1,500 equipped hospital beds, Imam Khomeini (RA) Hospital Complex is the largest hospital in Iran and Middle East region, he said, adding, “upon construction and launch of new hospital, the capacity of hospital bed would hit about 2,300.

With the coordination made in this regard, Mehdi Clinic Hospital will render quality services to people with public tariff as of the next year, Sadeghniyyat added.